MIT WIRKEN in Dortmund

This is where YOU are needed!

#WIR SIND DORTMUND

Stadt Dortmund

MIT WIRKEN

for residents of Dortmund

Do you care about the development and future of your city or neighborhood? Have you lacked the possibility to find out about important future projects and participation opportunities so that you can actively participate in them?

The Dortmund of tomorrow can now be designed even more easily by and with you: through your participation under: dortmund.de/mitwirken

Here you will quickly get an overview of the most diverse, city-wide, current and permanent participation offers and know where and how you can become active with your own suggestions and perspectives.

MitWIRken makes digital participation as well as direct and personal participation in political, planning and project-related processes and procedures of the city administration easy for you in the future.

means actively shaping the future

MitWIRken is the right place to find participation offers, to voice suggestions, to represent opinions or to contribute individual ideas, concepts as well as visions to projects.

Help shape the development of Dortmund and life in the neighborhoods and become part of the MitWIRken-community.
